

The Titanic: a first person account

Introduction – What were you doing when there was the first clue that something was wrong?

To include: subordinating conjunction

Main Body 1 – Description of how you came to realise what was happening

To include: figurative language

Main Body 2 - Description of how you were able to get onto a lifeboat and how you rowed away from the Titanic.

To include: passive voice sentence and dashes

Conclusion – On the Carpathia

To include: brackets and lots of emotive language. How were you feeling?

Checklist for my writing:

- Past tense
- First person
- Powerful verbs and adverbs
- Range of conjunctions
- Figurative language (similes, metaphors and personification)
- Passive voice sentence(s)
- Range of punctuation.

