

Going Down with the Titanic in Third Class

1. What is the name of the author's husband?
2. Explain why the author and her husband were travelling to America.
3. Name the ship which rescued the survivors of the Titanic.
4. Name three things that the couple enjoyed doing in their routine aboard the Titanic before it sunk.
5. What was the first clue that something was wrong?
6. How do we know that the author wasn't concerned about the ship when her husband first goes to investigate?
7. Find and copy an adjective which means:
  - a. indulgent
  - b. spooky
  - c. perplexed
  - d. dreadful
8. Find a piece of evidence to show that the author was worried about her husband when she went to the upper deck.
9. Analyse how the author's feelings changed throughout the text – before, during and after the ship sinking.
10. Write a paragraph in a role, showing the author's thoughts and feelings when she was on the lifeboat.

