

Double consonants

Words with double consonants can be tricky to spell, so make sure you can recognise them.

1. Complete the words in the sentences by adding a double consonant.

The man asked my dad to fill out a questio.....aire.

I do eat vegetables, but only o.....asionally.

Athletes have to be very co.....i.....ed to their training.

If there's a fire, you have to leave all your po.....e.....ions behind.

2. Draw a line to join the bits of words together. Write the completed words in the box.

sta	(pp)	ers stallion
inte	(ll)	igence
sli	(rr)	ion
cu	(ll)	le
go	(bb)	ent

3. Seven of the words in the passage below are spelt incorrectly. Circle the incorrect words, and write the correct spelling of each word in the box below.

I try not to be mesy, but it's dificult. My mum gets very cross and often says she will take away my pocket money, but no mater how hard I try, my room is always teribly untidy. Yesterday, Mum found a roten aple core under my bed. I think it might have been there for about a month because it was prety disgusting.

Double consonants

4. Use each of these words in a sentence.

fury

furry

of

off

5. Underline the correct spelling in each sentence below.

I have asked for a (buble / bubble / bubble) machine for Christmas.

The goblin was (kidnaped / kiddnapped / kidnapped) by trolls.

We've been practising our (addition / addittion / adition) and subtraction.

Our tree house is (conected / connected / conneected) to the Internet.

It's my parents' wedding (annivversary / anniverrary / anniversary) today.

6. The underlined words are spelt incorrectly. Write the corrections in the boxes.

Mrs Field was iritated by the gigling at the back of the clasroom.

↑	↑	↑
	gigling

I was unsucesful, but I still apreciated the wonderful oportunity.

↑	↑	↑

Spelling words with double consonants is simple for a Spellasaurus. Have you mastered it yet?

