Capital letters and full stops

Capital letters are quick — they come first. Full stops are slow — they come last. Let's race!

1. Here are some statements about when you should use capital letters.
    Put a tick after the ones that are correct.

    At the start of a new sentence ☐

    For all nouns and pronouns ☐

    For countries and cities ☐

    At the start of a new paragraph ☐

    For all verbs and adjectives ☐

    For people's names ☐

2. Circle the letters in the sentences below that should be capital letters.

    a. i don't think february is a very nice month — it's usually dark and rainy.

    b. he's travelling to poland on tuesday to visit his sister.

    c. roger gave angela a bouquet of flowers for her birthday.

    d. they hoped that michael would enjoy his new job in paris.

3. Rewrite these sentences with capital letters and full stops in the correct places.

    a. the car slowly turned into market street

    ....

    b. there was some fish in hayley's fridge

    ....

    c. John and i are Working in birmingham

    ....

© CGP — not to be photocopied

Capital letters and full stops

4. Use all the words in the boxes below to write a sentence.
    Add capital letters and full stops where they are needed.

    | last | | to | | london | | monday | | eileen | | moved |

    ....

5. Use the words in the box to complete the passage below.
    Add capital letters where they are needed.

    | foot | spain | dr clarke | sport | pony | wednesday |

    On ...., Ruby went to see .... about her sore

    .... It had started to hurt last week when her pet, a very chubby

    ...., had stood on it. The doctor told Ruby to rest and to stop playing .... for a while. Ruby hoped it would get better soon because she was going on holiday to .... the following week.

6. Write a sentence using each of the words below.
    Add capital letters and full stops where they are needed.

    a. england: ....

    b. sunday: ....

    c. naomi: ....

    d. mainsgate road: ....

Punctuation Pythons never forget to use capital letters and full stops. Do you always remember to use them too?

© CGP — not to be photocopied