

This week we are looking at 'are'. Can you think of any words with 'are' and write them on your whiteboards.

For example:

bare

care

stare

*Can you write your own sentence including a time conjunction and a question mark?

Adverbs

twinkl

Verbs and Adverbs

Verbs Answers

James walked to the shops.

Claire sipped her tea.

Gavin rides his bike.

Now you have reminded yourselves about verbs.
Today we are going to learn about adverbs.

Verbs and Adverbs

An adverb is used to describe how, what, when, where and why a verb happens.

James walked quickly to the shops.

This explains how James walked.

Who can mime (silently act) what James was doing?

Verbs and Adverbs

An adverb is used to describe how, what, when, where and why a verb happens.

Claire sipped her tea gently.

↑
verb

↑
adverb

This explains how Claire sipped.

Who can mime (silently act) what Claire did?

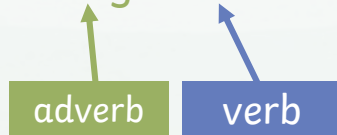

Verbs and Adverbs

An adverb is used to describe how, what, when, where and why a verb happens.

Gavin always rides his bike.

This explains how Gavin rides.

Who can mime (silently act) what Gavin is doing?

Verbs and Adverbs

What are adverbs?

They are added to the verb to answer questions like...

How?

When?

Where?

Why?

They describe the way something happens.

They often end in -ly but not always!

Watch the clip to help you by clicking on the play button.

Improving Sentences

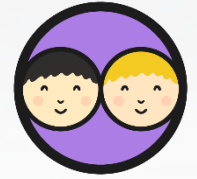

Adverbs are great!

They are especially great because they help make our sentences much, much more interesting.

Look at the photograph on the next page. Using the Adverb Bank there, create your own sentences on whiteboards with a partner.

Improving Sentences

Adverb Bank

interestingly surprisingly

next

strangely

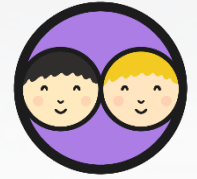

unusually

weirdly

On whiteboards, create your own adverb sentences with a partner.
e.g. Strangely, the old lady wore her knitting needles on her head.

Improving Sentences

- What sentences did you write?
- Where did you use your adverbs?
- Did anybody use adverbs in the middle of their sentences?
- Can anybody re-order their own sentence using the same words, but in a different order?

e.g.

Strangely, the old lady wore her knitting needles on her head.

The old lady wore her knitting needles on her head strangely.

The old lady strangely wore her knitting needles on her head.

