

Reading scales

Read the scale on a measuring jug

Teacher's notes

Children work out how much each of the containers can hold by reading the amounts of liquid in each measuring jug, and write the amount in the box. As only 500 ml is labelled, some children may want to write the amount at each unlabelled division to help them read the scale accurately.

