

A long /ar/

Do you say these words with a short /a/ sound or a long /ar/ sound?

fast last past class grass pass
father plant after path bath

Make up silly sentences using the words to help you remember them.

(fast, last, past)

The fast car has zoomed past us and now we're last.

(class, grass, pass)

(father, plant)

(after, path, bath)

Words such as fast, last and past can be said with a short /a/ sound or a long /ar/ sound. If you say them with a long /ar/ sound, then you need to remember that the /ar/ sound is spelled a.

How did you do?
