

from Eggs and Chicks by Fiona Patchett hatch – when a chick breaks out of its egg through the shell nest – a place that birds build to keep their eggs and chicks safe speckled – covered with little dots that make a pattern yolk – the yellow part in the middle of an egg. It helps the chick to grow.