

VERBS

A VERB is a 'doing' word.
Every sentence needs a VERB.

Which one is the VERB?

The boy swam to the other side of the pool.

VERB

Which one is the VERB?

Ever so slowly, the man crawled on his belly across the swamp.

VERB

Which one is the VERB?

A little while later, Jenny looked across the sea. Land at last!

VERB

Which of these words are VERBS?

table

car

write

drink

talk

fish

hop

yellow

dog

share

Write your selection on a piece of paper.

Your turn!

- Can you add a VERB to these sentences?
1. The dog _____ over the puddle.
 2. The boy _____ his name on his work.
 3. Fred _____ to his teacher about the homework.
 4. Sam was _____ near the teacher.
 5. I just _____ a big bar of chocolate.

Past and Present Tenses

- I was seven years old. (past)
- I am seven years old. (present)

- They played tennis. (past)
- They play tennis. (present)

- The monkeys climbed the tall tree. (past)
- The monkeys climb the tall tree. (present)

Task: Now use your knowledge of verbs to complete the 'staying in the same tense' activity.

Remember: Make sure you re-read each sentence at least twice to ensure that it makes sense!