

 What's the Problem?

Margot and Jerry Underwood have invited eight of their closest friends for dinner.

Throughout the evening, Margot is in the kitchen for 40% of the time, while Jerry is alone in the kitchen 10% of the time. They are both in the kitchen together for 20% of the time.

For how much of the evening are either Margot or Jerry alone in the kitchen?
