

Imperative Verbs

Ch 1. Amend the following sentences so that they include imperative verbs – remember they must sound bossy and be a command!

1. When you have finished with the rubber, give it to me.
2. If possible could you shut the door for me?
3. Very carefully cut along the dotted line.
4. It would be a very good idea to turn left at the traffic lights.
5. Could you please sit on the carpet?
6. After you have come into the classroom, tuck in your shirt.

Ch 2. Apply your knowledge of imperative verbs to write sentences in the speech bubbles:

Ch3. Create a set of instructions directing someone to do something (i.e. make a cup of tea, skim a stone or do a cartwheel). Read your instructions aloud to someone without revealing the title – can they guess what you are instructing them to do?
