

Word Bank

idyllic

earthquake

jolt

trembling dragged toppled tablecloth

cranes peaceful gasp yelled groping terrified

getaway

Features

- Passive and active sentences
- Witness statements and quotes
- Formal language
- Factual information
- Different points of view

Writing Plan

Paragraph 1:	Summary of events.
Paragraph 2:	When, What, Where, who?
Paragraph 3:	Eye Witness account.
Conclusion:	What next?

The Iron Man Newspaper Article

Success Criteria

I expect:

- Writing mainly in 3rd person past
- A variety of punctuation
- Subordinate clauses using a range of conjunctions

I hope:

- Adverbial phrases
- Relative clauses
- Exciting sentence openers

I challenge:

- Figurative language
- Passive sentences

Although Whilst

However Because

Despite Meanwhile

Sentence Openers

Yesterday, on a peaceful hilltop beside the sea,

Whilst enjoying our picnic,

Suddenly, a tremor was felt by Slowly, a great iron hand emerged from Little did we know that

Relative pronouns

- which
- that
- who
- whose

