

Types of noun

1. Use the words in the box to complete the definitions.

ideas general proper groups

Common nouns are words for things, animals and people.

The names of particular people, places or things are nouns.

Collective nouns are words for of animals or people.

Abstract nouns are words for and concepts.

2. In the boxes below, write whether each noun is common (C) or proper (P).

station Greece rhino Jason biscuits
 waiter school April carrot tornado

3. Sort the words below into the correct columns.

sandwich swarm ~~bravery~~ horde
 fear Liverpool hamster arena
 Friday patience flock Stefan

Common Nouns	Proper Nouns	Collective Nouns	Abstract Nouns
.....	bravery
.....
.....

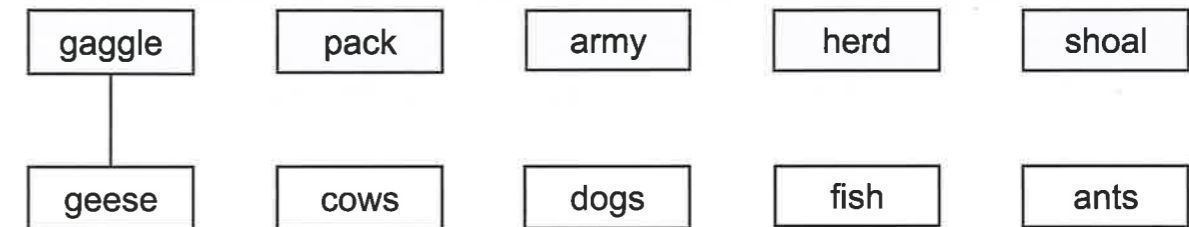

Types of noun

4. Rewrite this sentence, replacing the words in bold with proper nouns.

The girl took her dog for a walk.

.....

5. Match each collective noun to the correct animal.

6. Circle all the abstract nouns in the passage below. There are four in total.

(An abstract noun is a name for something that you cannot see, hear, smell or touch.)

We are all very impressed with the dedication of the Year Six students this year. They have taken on a lot of responsibility for their work and acted with kindness towards younger pupils. We will miss their enthusiasm next year.

7. Write a sentence which includes all of the following nouns.

a. London taxi gorilla

.....

b. Mr Lewis books classroom

.....

Grammagators are no common bunch — they know nouns like a mouse knows cheese. Are you one of them?

