

Nouns

Nouns are the words we use to name things — people, places, custard...
Work through these questions to make sure you can spot them a mile off.

1. Tick the words below which are nouns.

- jam softly massive actor assembly
hat happy Hannah confident headache

Choose one of the nouns from above, and use it in a sentence.

.....

2. Underline the nouns in each sentence. Then write another noun to replace each one.

Fran carried the flowers very carefully. Nathan jelly

The dentist checked my teeth.

There's a new house in our road.

We found a worm under the soil.

There are lots of fish in the sea.

3. Add your own nouns to the passage below.

Samantha waited until everyone had left the, then opened her rucksack. Inside, there was a, a and a She was pleased that she'd remembered everything. She waited by the for her friend,, to arrive.

Nouns are the first step on the journey to becoming a Grammagator. How did you do? Tick the box.

Singular and plural nouns

1. Circle the plural nouns below.

- magnet jumper lizards wishes
gardens festival babies actress

'Plural' means more than one.

2. Cross out the incorrect form of the noun in each sentence.

My (picture / pictures) is of a cow with a field in the (background / backgrounds).

Our class (robot / robots) has (arm / arms) that are made of cardboard (tube / tubes).

The shopkeeper gave each (child / children) a (bag / bags) of (sweet / sweets).

3. The plural nouns in bold are incorrect. Write the correct versions on the lines.

one cherry, two cherrys one torch, two torchs

one man, two mans one fairy, two fairys

one fox, two foxs one half, two halfs

4. Rewrite each sentence below, changing the nouns in bold into plurals.

a. Dad found the cat hiding under the bush.
.....

b. The thief stole the ruby from the cabinet.
.....

Grammagators aren't foxed by tricky plural nouns. Are you? Tick the box to show how well you did.

